Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Sunday 26 Dec 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mostly cloudy with further outbreaks of rain.

Today:
Mostly cloudy with showers or some longer outbreaks of rain during the day. It will be a milder day with winds turning into the south or southwest and becoming mostly light. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy with scattered showers at first, dying out early tonight. Then mostly dry with clear periods developing and some mist and fog patches forming. Light southerly winds. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Monday:
Mostly dry with mist and fog patches slow to disperse. Otherwise a bright day with some sunshine. Easterly winds freshening later. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
A changeable few days with drier, brighter weather on Tuesday followed by some wet and windy weather on Wednesday. Drier for a time on Thursday then more rain later.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.